

BRIEFLY

Rally against domestic violence

THE Community Research Facility (CRF) of YRG Care would conduct a rally for the prevention of domestic violence on January 31. Around 500 women, especially from the economically weaker section, would participate in the rally, said a press release.

The rally would start at the counselling centre of YRG Care, Godha Medu Slum Clearance Board tenements, Saidapet, and end at Panagal building. It would start at 2.30 p.m.

Members from NGOs working for women's welfare and empowerment would take part in the rally. They would also educate women on the implications of domestic violence and its prevention.

CityExpress

Chennai, Wednesday, January 31, 2007

With The New Indian Express